

Membership Spotlight - Glinda Jackson

Congratulations to Glinda on her new business venture, Jackson Management Group!

Jackson Management Group (JMG) is a supplier diversity consulting firm providing companies with supplier diversity and economic inclusion strategies.

Diverse and non-diverse companies benefit from the services of JMG. We have proof positive strategies with more than 17 years' experience in diversity compliance and economic inclusion. With daily involvement in the management of over $750M in diversity participation contracts and exceeding mandated diversity goals on projects like MD Live Casino and the MGM National Harbor, the Principal consultant definitely has her hand on the pulse of diversity and economic inclusion.

JMG is committed to assist company's increase their overall diversity spend by utilizing qualified diverse vendors and implementing economic inclusion in the communities in which they serve. In turn key suppliers and vendors who are diverse that need help leveraging their existing certification status we are able to offer an audience; ultimately both sides of the coin can benefit from our services.

Some companies may not know they qualify for diverse certifications or they are certified and are in a position to increase their certification classifications. JMG will help them manage the certification process and provide strategies on how to get the most exposure leveraging diversity certifications.

Jackson Management Group concentrates in areas of compliance monitoring and reporting, diversity certifications/regulations, workforce development, economic inclusion and creation and implementation of strategies to increase diversity spend.
